Re: Consent to Disclosure of National Provider Identification

Dear Physician and Provider:

As you know, beginning May 23, 2007, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") are requiring all health care providers to begin using a National Provider Identification ("NPI") number. CMS states that providers will not be reimbursed for services provided to beneficiaries unless they use NPI numbers to identify all providers involved in the service, such as in the attending, referring or consulting capacity or as a provider ordering diagnostic services. As a result, CMS recommends that providers share their NPI number with other providers with whom or which they work. This includes hospitals, nursing homes, specialists, and health insurance plans.

To help you in this transition, Jordan Health Systems, Inc., which includes Jordan Hospital and Jordan Physician Associates, with your permission, is willing to share your NPI number(s) with other health care providers, entities and insurance plans upon their request. If you would like us to assist you in sharing your NPI information with those who specifically request it from us, please countersign this letter and return it as soon as possible to:
